Re: Proof of Yang, Shuo's admittance to the 2020 CSST Program

This letter is to confirm that Yang, Shuo was admitted to the Cross-Disciplinary Scholars in Science and Technology (CSST) Summer Program at University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) for summer 2020. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the CSST program, which was planned to take place from July 6th to September 11th, 2020, has been cancelled. Therefore, the above-mentioned student was not able to be on site to complete the program.

The CSST Summer Program is a highly-renowned research training and PhD recruitment program at UCLA. It invites outstanding students interested in PhD studies to conduct 10-week research training with UCLA faculty mentors. These admitted students are competitively selected from top-tier universities in the Peoples Republic of China (PRC) and Japan. The admitted students need to pass three rounds of vigorous screenings, including in-person interviews conducted by UCLA professors. The admitted students show great potential in 1) pursuing successful PhD studies in the US; 2) creatively utilizing cross-disciplinary knowledge to solve complicated scientific questions; 3) collaborating with colleagues from diverse scientific fields; 4) making great contribution to the scientific field.

Yang, Shuo has showed the intention of applying for graduate school this year. If any more information is needed regarding Yang, Shuo's qualification for the CSST program, please feel free to contact us at csst@nsi.ucla.edu.

Sincerely,
